1. (a) It is hereby found and declared by the State Reorganization Commission, after examination and investigation, that the abolition of the Board of Conciliation is necessary to bring about compliance with the provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 1 of Act No. 621 of the Acts and Joint Resolutions of the General Assembly in the Regular Session of 1948, entitled "An Act to provide for the reorganization of the executive and administrative agencies of the State Government by transfer, consolidation, coordination, combination and abolition of such agencies and functions; to create the State Reorganization Commission and prescribe its duties, powers and functions; and to make an appropriation for the administration of this Act," and to accomplish one or more of the purposes set forth in Section 1 of the said Act, inasmuch as all of the functions, duties, powers and authority given to and devolved by law upon the Board of Conciliation are now being exercised by the Department of Labor.
